IN REPLY PLEASE
REFER TO Q# 2333

rec'd 8 Mar

Admiral Stansfield Turner
Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Langley, Virginia

Dear Admiral:

Over the past several months, staff members of the Committee have had the occasion to talk with two former employees of the CIA, [redacted]

25X1

[redacted] These two employees have recently resigned.

25X1

I am sure you are familiar with these cases.

The Inspector General and the Agency as a whole seem to have done what could be done under existing authorities to rectify what was clearly a great wrong. It seems, however, that more might be done; perhaps through a private bill or some other remedy. It is clear that great damage was done to the careers of these two individuals.
It is also apparent that both men could have contributed more to the Agency and to the country and their reputations were besmirched and their personal lives grievously harmd.

I think it would be appropriate for the Committee to work with you to see if more could be done to compensate for this most profound injustice.

With kind regards,

Sincerely,

Birch
